

*Suffolk University President James McCarthy
cordially invites you to attend the*

FROST SOCIETY LUNCHEON

honoring the extraordinary generosity shown by you
and fellow members

with Keynote Speaker

Patricia M. Annino, JD '81

Partner, Prince Lobel and Tye LLP

Nationally recognized authority on estate planning and taxation

Inspiring women and men on wealth management for over 20 years

Tuesday, June 10, 2014

12 p.m.

David J. Sargent Hall

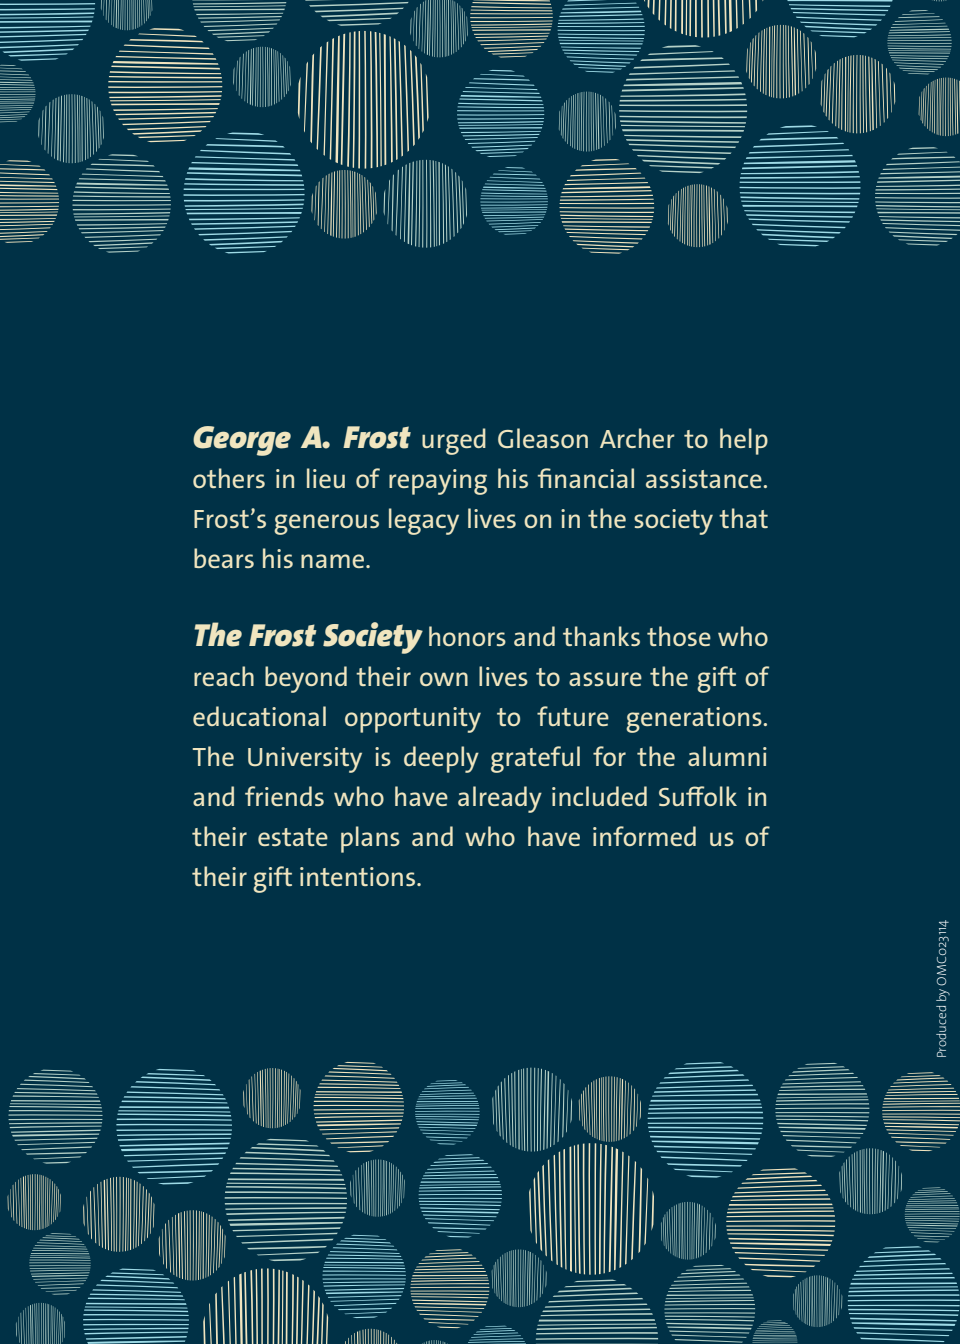

Faculty Dining Room, Fourth Floor

120 Tremont Street, Boston

RSVP by June 3 to Rachel Pelkey at 617.573.8451 or rpelkey@suffolk.edu

Suffolk University

George A. Frost urged Gleason Archer to help others in lieu of repaying his financial assistance. Frost's generous legacy lives on in the society that bears his name.

The Frost Society honors and thanks those who reach beyond their own lives to assure the gift of educational opportunity to future generations. The University is deeply grateful for the alumni and friends who have already included Suffolk in their estate plans and who have informed us of their gift intentions.

*Suffolk University President James McCarthy
cordially invites you to attend the*

FROST SOCIETY LUNCHEON

honoring the extraordinary generosity shown by you
and fellow members

with Keynote Speaker

Patricia M. Annino, JD '81

Partner, Prince Lobel and Tye LLP

Nationally recognized authority on estate planning and taxation

Inspiring women and men on wealth management for over 20 years

Tuesday, June 10, 2014

12 p.m.

David J. Sargent Hall

Faculty Dining Room, Fourth Floor

120 Tremont Street, Boston

RSVP by June 3 to Rachel Pelkey at 617.573.8451 or rpelkey@suffolk.edu